Twenty-Fifth International Conference on Grey Literature “Confronting Climate Change with Trusted Grey Resources”

Welcome, Keynote and Opening Addresses

Keynote Address

Prof.dr. Gerard van der Steenhoven
*Netherlands Ministry of Interior and the University of Twente
Netherlands*

Gerard van der Steenhoven is a special advisor at the Ministry of the Interior (and Kingdom Relations) in the Netherlands, and part-time professor at the University of Twente in meteorological and climatological disaster risk reduction. From 2014 until 2023 he served a nine-year term as Director General of the Royal Netherlands' Meteorological Institute (KNMI). Previously, he was dean of the Faculty of Science and Technology at the University of Twente (2008 – 2013), and president of the Netherlands' Physical Society (NNV, 2007 – 2013). As KNMI director he initiated a multi-annual investment in the renewal of the observational and IT infrastructure of the institute, leading to the development of a national Early Warning Center. Within Europe he served as chair of the EUMETSAT council (2018 – 2022) and initiated the development of the first European NMHS directors' strategy (2016). At present his activities focus on supporting various climate initiatives in the Netherlands (such as the national Climate Research Initiative NL, and the regional Delta Climate Centre in Vlissingen), various assessment committees, public lectures and advisory work. Gerard van der Steenhoven obtained his PhD in experimental physics at the Vrije Universiteit in 1987 and worked as a postdoc at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) thereafter. In 1989 he started as a senior researcher at the national research institute NIKHEF in Amsterdam. Gerard.Steenhoven@minbzk.nl

Welcome Address

Brian Paul Bales
*International Nuclear Information
System, INIS-IAEA
Austria*

Brian Paul Bales is Coordinator (Unit Head) of the International Nuclear Information System (INIS) at the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) in Vienna, Austria. INIS is an open access repository for nuclear science and technology literature that has existed for more than 50 years and has over 132 member states and organizations. Brian's special areas of interest include digital preservation, information management, and artificial intelligence to foster knowledge sharing, innovation and progress. Previously, he worked for the archives and records section of the UN's International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals (IRMCT) in Arusha, Tanzania, as well as an earlier 7-year assignment with the IAEA. He holds a Master's Degree in Information Technology from the University of Denver. B.Bales@iaea.org

Opening Address

Vyacheslav Tykhonov
*Data Archiving and Networked Services, DANS
Netherlands*

Vyacheslav Tykhonov (Slava) was born in Kyiv, Ukraine. With a background in information and computer science, Slava has worked for more than 20 years in the area of software development, research and innovation for national, European and international research infrastructures. Most recently, as a Senior R&D Engineer at DANS-KNAW and FAIR data expert. Slava participated in various European projects funded by the EC. For many years, he has been an active member of the Open-Source community around the Harvard Dataverse platform. As a knowledge engineer and Semantic Web enthusiast, Slava explored and implemented new solutions and data services, from data enrichment to long-term archiving. vyacheslav.tykhonov@dans.knaw.nl

Moderator Day One – Brian Paul Bales, International Nuclear Information System, INIS-IAEA, Austria

11:30 SESSION 1 – INCREASING THE VISIBILITY OF TRUSTED GREY RESOURCES

- Finding, Organizing, Using and Preserving Trusted Grey Literature on Climate Change
Toby Green, Coherent Digital, France and Julia Gelfand, University of California, Irvine, United States
- The Contribution of Grey Literature in Achieving Sustainable Fishing: Case Studies from Cambodia, Indonesia, Philippines and Viet Nam
Tamsin Vicary and Maria Kalentsits, Food and Agriculture Organization, FAO of the United Nations, Italy; Daryl L. Superio, Northern Iloilo State University, Philippines
- The Value of Grey Literature on Climate Change Research in the Philippines: A Bibliometric Analysis of Locally Published Researches
Daryl L. Superio, Rizzamila R. Superio, and Rolelyn B. Paredes, Northern Iloilo State University; Erish Estante-Superio, Mary Grace Oliveros, and Joy Geromiano, Southeast Asian Fisheries Development Center; Ariette De Asis, Eileen Estoque, and Edna T. Suganob, Northern Iloilo State University; Martin Floro, Capiz State University; Ethelyn Abaday-Maglangit, Mindanao State University at Naawan, Philippines
- Realizing the Potential of Grey Literature by Recognizing its Publishers: The PUBGREY Project and the Case of Climate Change
Dominic Farace, GreyNet International, Netherlands; Stefania Biagioni and Carlo Carlesi, ISTI-CNR, Italy

14:00 SESSION 2 – DILEMMAS, CHALLENGES, AND ACCURACY OF GREY LITERATURE

- Collection Development and Maintenance of Accurate Grey Literature on Climate Change: A Case Study of the Law and Policy in the United States
Tomas A. Lipinski and Joyce Lee, University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee, United States
- When Trusted Sources Don't Help Us Address Climate Change: A Grey Dilemma
Kathrine A. Henderson, LAC-Group, United States
- Information, Public Decision-Making, and Climate Change: The Many Roles of Grey Literature
Bertrum H. MacDonald and Patricia Manuel, Dalhousie University, Canada
- A Review of French PhD Theses on Sustainable Development
Hélène Prost, CNRS – GERiiCO; Joachim Schöpfel, Université de Lille, France

Day Two - Conference Program

09:00  REGISTRATION DESK OPENS

09:30  POSTER SESSION AND SPONSOR SHOWCASE

Lightening style presentations in the main conference hall are followed by discussions in an informal setting. Those presenting conference posters are eligible for the Poster Prize 2023 that will be awarded during the Closing Session. Posters will be judged on their innovative content, relevance to grey literature, graphic design, and presentation.

Moderator Day Two – Tamsin Vicary, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, FAO, Italy

- Patent Files in the National and University Library
Veronika Potočnik and Mojca Trtnik; National and University Library, NUK, Slovenia
- Identifying the Publishers in Grey Literature and Crosslinking their Work: GreyGuide Portal and Repository
Stefania Biagioni and Carlo Carlesi, InfraScience; ISTI-CNR, Italy; Dominic Farace, GreyNet, Netherlands
- Design of a digital curation maturity conceptual model for developing and sharing scientific and technological information considering grey literature
Seokjong Lim and Jaehoon Kim, Korea Institute of Science and Technology Information, South Korea
- 20 Years of French Grey Literature on Sustainable Development
Joachim Schöpfel, University of Lille and Hélène Prost, CNRS - GERiICO, France
- Business Survival Strategy during COVID-19 Pandemic: A Case Study of Kopontren
Adrian Ariatin, Wawan Dhewanto, Oktofa Yudha Sudrajad, Sonny Rustiadi, and Meditya Wasesa School of Business and Management, Institut Teknologi Bandung, Bandung, Indonesia
- A New Approach to the Field of Grey Literature: 'Let's Reduce the Noise and Raise Awareness'
Dominic Farace, GreyNet International, Netherlands
- A conceptual design case study of an on-demand scientific information collection based on AI system
Jayhoon Kim, Miwhan Hyun, and Hyejin Lee, Korea Institute of Science and Technology Information, South Korea
- Following the Science using the NCBI Bookshelf
Stacy Lathrop, National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health and Ariah Long, NLM Associate, USA
- Geomapping history: Seismology and vulcanology in ancient Italian maps, local chronicles, and timelines
Luisa De Biagi, National Research Council of Italy, CNR Central Library, Italy

11:00  SESSION 3 – CLIMATE CHANGE AND GREY LITERATURE: THE INIS-IAEA USE CASE

- Grey literature on climate change studies at the International Nuclear Information System
Viet Phuong Nguyen and Brian Paul Bales, Division of Planning, Information and Knowledge Management, Department of Nuclear Energy, International Atomic Energy Agency, Austria
- Charcoal Burning in Zambia: User Narratives for Successful and Equitable Information Services
Brian Paul Bales, Division of Planning, Information and Knowledge Management, Department of Nuclear Energy, International Atomic Energy Agency, Austria
- Drops in a bucket: contributions of the IAEA Lise Meitner Library to the INIS database
Nicolas Rucks, Nuclear Information Section; Division of Planning, Information and Knowledge Management Department of Nuclear Energy; IAEA Lise Meitner Library, Austria

13:30  PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FORUM

GL25 provides a platform for new initiatives with marked potential for the field of grey literature

- Grey Literature Supporting the Right to Knowledge
Silvia Giannini, Stefania Lombardi, and Anna Molino, Institute of Information Science and Technologies, ISTI-CNR, Italy
- All in the Mind - Adopting an Agile Mindset as the Prerequisite to Agile Transformation
Alistair Reece, GeoScienceWorld, United States
- Harnessing the Power of AI for Managing Grey Literature
Dobrica Savić, IAEA Consultant in Nuclear Knowledge Management, Austria

15:15  CLOSING SESSION

Twenty-Fifth International Conference on Grey Literature 'Confronting Climate Change with Trusted Grey Resources'

OBA Congres • November 13-14, 2023
Oosterdokskade, Amsterdam, Netherlands

INFORMATION PROFESSIONALS WORLDWIDE TO MEET AT GL25 IN AMSTERDAM

On 13-14 November 2023, information professionals from organizations in government, academics, business and industry in 15 countries worldwide will meet in the OBA Forum for the Twenty-Fifth International Conference on Grey Literature titled 'Confronting Climate Change with Trusted Grey Resources'.

Grey literature is both a driver and vehicle in knowledge generation and transfer

With over a quarter century of research on grey literature carried out by diverse communities of practice in this field of information, a collective challenge emerges. Researchers and authors spanning manifold disciplines in science, technology, and the humanities are called to action. GL25 seeks to accept this challenge. To this end, grey literature communities worldwide are called upon to direct their attention in responding to climate change for the benefit of our vulnerable planet.

Twenty-five presentations in plenary and poster sessions discussing the visibility of grey resources, the dilemmas, challenges, and accuracy of grey literature, use cases as well as new areas of interest such as agile transformation and the power of AI in managing grey literature comprise the content of the GL25 Conference Program.

A limited number of free conference passes are available for University/College, Faculty/Students

National Library of Technology

National Library of Technology (hereafter referred to as "NTK") is a central professional library open to public, which offers a unique collection of 250 thousand publications freely accessible in open circulation. Its holdings form the largest collection of Czech and foreign documents from technology and applied natural sciences as well as associated social sciences. It contains a total of 1,2 Mil. volumes of books, journals and newspapers, theses, reports, standards, and trade literature in both printed and electronic forms. Besides its own collection, parts of Central Library of the CTU in Prague and Central Library of the ICT holdings are accessible in NTK.

For detailed information on the National Library of Technology visit <http://www.techlib.cz/en/>

As corresponds to its statutes, NTK manages – among others – the project of building the National Repository of Grey Literature. The project aims at gathering metadata and possibly full texts of grey documents in the fields of education, science and research. The NTK supports an education in the field of grey literature through annual seminars in the Czech Republic.

For more information on the National Repository of Grey Literature visit our project Web site <http://nrgl.techlib.cz/> and for a search <http://www.nusl.cz/>

50 YEARS OF INIS

THE WORLD'S TRUSTED NUCLEAR REPOSITORY

Looking for nuclear information?

Want to preserve your nuclear information?

INIS CAN HELP!

The International Nuclear Information System (INIS) was established in 1970 "to foster the exchange of scientific and technical information on peaceful uses of atomic energy".

132 countries and 14 international organizations contribute their national nuclear literature, making it the world's leading open access repository for nuclear science and technology literature.

Explore INIS and find a wealth of information on physics, radiation, climate change, health, etc. Preserve your nuclear information by storing it in our trusted repository.
